This position is in-person and regular remote work is not an option. The term law clerk provides legal research and writing assistance to the judge and drafts orders, memoranda, and opinions. The term law clerk's duties also include reviewing legal submissions (such as motions, petitions, supporting and opposing briefs); proofreading and editing orders for grammar, spelling, word usage, and proper citation; being familiar with electronic filing and case management systems; managing a docket and prioritizing projects to ensure that matters are addressed in a timely manner; coordinating with personnel in the clerk's office and other judicial chambers to ensure efficient disposition of cases; and keeping abreast of changes in the law. Applicants must possess excellent research, writing, proofreading, and communication skills.

QUALIFICATIONS STANDARDS: Applicant must be a law school graduate (or be certified as having completed all law school studies and requirements and merely awaiting conferment of degree) from a law school approved by the American Bar Association or the Association of American Law Schools and have demonstrated the following accomplishments or proficiencies:

- Standing within the upper quarter of the law school class;

- Experience on the editorial board of a law review of such a school;
