SUMMARY OF REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: Magistrate Judge Amanda Maxfield invites applications for the position of a one-year term law clerk beginning in September 2026 with the possibility of extension (not to exceed four years). The term law clerk provides legal research and writing assistance to the judge and drafts orders, memoranda, and opinions. The term law clerk is also responsible for some clerical/administrative duties, as the chambers' arrangements do not include a judicial assistant. These duties may require the term law clerk to answer and screen telephone calls; greet and assist the public; answer general inquiries; proofread and edit material for grammar, spelling accuracy and word usage; review legal submissions (such as motions, petitions, supporting and opposing briefs); manage the docket and prioritize projects to ensure that motions are briefed and are cleared in a timely manner; assist with settlement conferences; and keep abreast of changes in the law. Applicants must possess excellent research, writing, proofreading, and communication skills.

QUALIFICATIONS STANDARDS: Applicant must be a law school graduate (or be certified as having completed all law school studies and requirements and merely awaiting conferment of degree) from a law school approved by the American Bar Association or the Association of American Law Schools and have demonstrated the following accomplishments or proficiencies:

- Standing within the upper quarter of the law school class;
- Experience on the editorial board of a law review of such a school;
- Graduation from such a school with an LLM degree; or
- Proficiency in legal studies that, in the opinion of the judge, is the equivalent of one of the above.

To qualify for grade 12, one year of legal work experience is required; to qualify for grade 13, two years of legal work experience is required. With the exception of grade 11, a bar membership also is required.

LEGAL WORK EXPERIENCE: Legal work experience is defined as progressively responsible experience in the practice of law, in legal research, legal administration, or equivalent experience received after graduation from law school. Major or substantial legal activities while on military duty may be credited on a month-for-month basis whether before or after graduation, but not to exceed one year if before graduation from law school.

All employees are subject to mandatory electronic direct deposit of salary payment.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Applicants must be a United States Citizen, subject to the exceptions enumerated at <https://www.uscourts.gov/careers/search-judiciary-jobs/citizenship-requirements-employment-judiciary>.

Participation in the interview process will be at the applicant's own expense and relocation expenses will not be provided. Interviews by video conference may be accommodated for interviewees upon request. Only qualified applicants will be considered for this position.

As a condition of employment, the selected candidate will be subject to an FBI fingerprint background check and satisfactory adjudication by the employing office to be eligible for employment. Due to the sensitivity level of this position, candidates may be asked about their criminal history prior to receiving a tentative offer of employment. Candidates completing the AO-78 must complete questions 19-21 regarding their criminal history. Criminal history is not in itself disqualifying. All available information, past and present, favorable and unfavorable, about the reliability and trustworthiness of an individual will be considered when making an employment suitability determination. All information provided by applicants is subject to verification and background investigation. Applicants are advised that false statements or omission of information on any application material may be grounds for non-selection, withdrawal of an offer of employment, or dismissal after being employed.

The Court reserves the right to modify the conditions of this job announcement, or to withdraw the announcement, which may occur without prior written or other notice. In the event that a position becomes vacant in a similar classification, within a reasonable time of the original announcement, the court may elect to select a candidate from the applicants who responded to the original announcement without re-posting the position.

Employees are subject to The Code of Conduct for Judicial Employees.

All Court employees are at will and therefore the selected candidate may be removed from this position at any time.
