

FBA Labor & Employment Section's
Traveling CLE:
Employment Law in a Nutshell
September 23, 2016
1:30–4:45 pm

The Oklahoma City Chapter of the FBA joins the FBA's Labor & Employment Section to bring national speakers to address important employment topics that provide local practitioners with critical information for anyone faced with employment matters. The 3-hour CLE will address the basics of both state and federal labor and employment law, including EEO, DOL's new overtime rules and other FLSA matters, as well as employee leave rights, timely wage payment obligations, and limitations on employee solicitations and other competition.

Speakers:

Brett Strand, Labor & Employment Counsel, 3M Office of General Counsel, St. Paul Minnesota

Betsy Chestney, Cornell, Smith, Mierl & Brutocao, Austin, Texas
Rand Eddy, Mulinix, Edwards, Rosell and Goerke, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma
Josh Solberg, McAfee & Taft, PC, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Details:

Location: U.S. District Court—200 NW 4th Street, William J. Holloway Jr.
Courthouse,
Jury Assembly Room

Date: September 23, 2016

Time: 1:30 pm–4:45 pm (3 hours of CLE)

Seminar Fees: $50 FBA Members; $80 Non-Members; $30 Government Attorneys

FBA student members may attend for free. Student members may RSVP by contacting Marsha Thompson at (405) 609-5221 or marsha_thompson@okwd.uscourts.gov

Register online: Click here to register online or contact Marsha Thompson